He is a contributing author of Dr. Masaru Emoto's best-selling book, The Healing Power of Water. Based upon his expertise of the subconscious mind and holistic health, Dr. Weissman is an international speaker in the field of consciousness. He has been featured in the films E-Motion, Making Mankind, Beyond Belief, The Truth, and the award-winning documentary, HEAL. Dr. Weissman has written for numerous magazines including Natural Health, The Huffington Post, Prevention, and InStyle. Dr. Weissman was named the Thought Leader for the United Breast Cancer Foundation and United Women's Health Alliance. He's been featured on Hay House Radio, with his acclaimed radio show The Heart of the Matter.

His passion is teaching people how to intentionally change the emotional programs of the subconscious mind. As a natural by-product, clients directly enhance their body's and relationship's natural potential to heal and thrive.

Based upon his life's work and research, Dr. Weissman developed The LifeLine Technique® in 2002. Since then, he established The LifeLine Center offering a diverse array of individual care services and educational course programs devoted to personal development with a collective vision of creating world peace through inner peace. The LifeLine Technique® has drawn thousands of students from all over the world where there are over 700 people who have become Certified LifeLine Practitioners in 24 countries. Dr. Darren and his team have created a Build Your Business Building Module and Coaching for those that are looking to discover their professional leading edge. In addition to The LifeLine Learning Center, Dr. Weissman is the Director of The LifeLine Wellness Center, where he and Master Certified LifeLine Practitioners serve clients of all ages via remote or in-person LifeLine sessions. He writes for magazines and blogs and maintains an international workshop and lecture schedule teaching The LifeLine Technique® via interactive online and in person courses.

Darren loves life, learning, and serving so that others can awaken to living with passion and purpose. He lives in the Chicago area with his wife and business partner, Sarit, and their three children.
